WELCOME

A New Year will soon be upon us and as 2023 comes to a close with our Christmas programme, we are delighted to present our diverse selection of Spring Shows for your delectation.

Highlights include the comic stylings of Lee Hurst, a humorous musical celebration of country pubs from Chris Sainton-Clark, Robbie Cumming's Canal Boat Stories and an evening of musician and music journalist John Robb's adventures on-stage and off.

Our commitment to drama continues, as Eastern Angles bring their production of Stones In His Pockets to The Quay stage in April whilst the work of P.G Wodehouse is celebrated by the team at Don't Go Into The Cellar. The comedy double-bill of Gold and Coppers from Nicholas Collett Productions promises 80s tunes, a hapless heist and Home Office embarrassment whilst Chloe Wade's As She Likes It explores more serious matters focusing on a case that informed the 'Me Too' movement. The Quay will be offering Female Empowerment Workshops on the day of this production to tie in with the themes of this show.

As we seek to offer more theatre for our younger audiences, Little Angel Theatre will be making their Quay debut this season with the delightful Dogs Don't Do Ballet, beautiful puppet theatre for ages 2-6, whilst James Campbell's Comedy For Kids — 'Don't Panic We Can Save The Planet' for 6-11 year olds promises eco-laughs a plenty.

Alongside our continuing Drama Season Ticket, (saving up to 20% on ticket prices), we are launching our Live Cinema Season Ticket this spring with similar savings available.

Music wise there is plenty to choose from with the folk stylings of The Finn Collinson Band & Reg Meuross and blistering Bluegrass from Flatts and Sharps.

Finally, a special mention for our History Evenings, which have fittingly been renamed this year in memory of stalwart Quay supporter and history evening host, Lord Andrew Phillips.

We look forward to seeing you soon.

Tom Lagden, Interim Executive Director

DRAMA

The Seagull by Anton Chekhov

'A comedy - four acts, rural scenery (a view over a lake), much talk of literature, little action, five bushels of love'. Chekhov's characteristically modest description of his own play, first performed in 1896, says little about a work that forever changed the nature and possibilities of drama. This translation by Michael Frayn brings a contemporary feel to the play with wit and charm, retaining the sensitive and profound observations on the human condition that Chekhov intended.

Thu 14 — Sat 16 March 7:30pm & Sat 16 2pm | £14 / £5 U21s

An Amateur Production presented by Bury Theatre Workshop

A WORD 'FOR' OUR SPONSORS

Occupying a beautiful 1791, Grade II Listed building, The Quay Theatre is one of Sudbury's key attractions and an integral part of the local community.

We relish working in partnership with businesses in the region. Whether it be simply stocking locally made products on our bar, displaying homegrown artists work in our gallery space or collaborating in a more tailored way, we are keen to build strong mutually beneficial relationships with Corporate Partners throughout Suffolk.

In 2022/23 The Quay welcomed almost 23,000 visitors to the theatre. This year has seen a restructure of the theatre's management structure which has bolstered and broadened the artistic programme, improved front of house operations and increased our marketing and engagement capabilities. As a result, with a record 121 shows in 148 days in Autumn, and a similarly ambitious Spring programme ahead, we are confident that our reach will continue to grow.

We would be happy to develop a bespoke Corporate Sponsorship Package to suit your individual business needs and objectives. Please contact Tom Lagden , Interim Executive Director on 01787 374745 or email exec@quaysudbury.com for more details.

BOOKING INFORMATION

The Quay Bar is open from one hour before performances.

BOOKING FEE

The Quay charges a 75p booking fee per ticket to cover administrative costs.

LATECOMERS

Dependent on the nature of the performance latecomers may be asked to wait for a suitable break in performance before taking their seats.

SEATING PLAN

DIRECTIONS & PARKING

Sudbury is approximately 40 minutes from the A120, A12 and A14 and about 90 minutes from London. Using the venue postcode of CO10 2AN will bring Satnavs to Quay Lane. If you continue down Quay Lane, past the Cricket pitch on your right and the Tennis Club on your left, you will find the Quay at the end of the lane.

There is free car parking for patrons directly outside the theatre.

Sudbury has a railway station with hourly services to Marks Tey, which meets the mainline to Norwich heading north, and London Liverpool Street heading west.

REFUNDS

The Quay is unable to offer refunds on tickets unless a show is cancelled or postponed. Credit to a customer's account may be applied at the discretion of the Operations Manager.

ACCESS

Our auditorium can accommodate up to three wheelchair users and we welcome assistance dogs at all performances. Please advise us of any access requirements at time of booking. Due to licensing requirements, no person will be admitted to a performance without a valid ticket. This provision includes babes in arms and other small children.

ROOM HIRE

As a community hub, all of the theatre's spaces are available for hire when available. This includes our rehearsal room, (The Jetty); The Geoff Kisby Room with adjacent kitchen; the auditorium and the bar. Besides performances, these spaces are ideal for functions, parties, business conferences and meetings. Please email manager@quaysudbury.com with any enquiries.

COSTUMES

Quay Costume Hire is managed by The Sudbury Dramatic Society. Viewings are by arrangement only and can be booked by emailing costumes@sudburydramatic.com.

SHOW CONTENT

Certain productions may contain flashing lights, strobe, haze effects and pyrotechnics. If any of these are likely to affect your enjoyment of a performance please contact the box office for clarity. Films and Live Theatre Screenings will be subject to age ratings and live performances may be subject to advisory age restrictions. Management reserves the right to refuse entry on these grounds.

GIFT VOUCHERS

Gift vouchers for The Quay make an ideal present and can be purchased from the box office.

EMAIL LIST

Keep updated with what's coming up at The Quay by joining our e-mailing list. Simply call the box office to receive regular information about forthcoming productions.

QUAY FUNDRAISING

As a registered charity, fundraising is vital to the ongoing success of The Quay Theatre and we continually campaign to raise funds to augment income from productions.

We are always looking to collaborate in these efforts, and have recently launching a new Friends Scheme and Corporate Membership packages. If you are interested or wish to find out more please email exec@quaysudbury.com in order to discuss how we can work together to keep The Quay at the forefront of cultural life in Sudbury for many years to come.

The Quay Theatre are grateful for the support of our funders. Reg Charity No. 1099868
