AN OPPORTUNITY TO ADVERTISE YOUR BUSINESS AND SUPPORT LOCAL CHARITIES

The Borough Family Fun Day is established on the calendar as a well-attended community event, where local charities, community groups, retailers and crafts come together. We offer you the opportunity to advertise your business in the event programme which is the ticket for entry. In 2013 we had an estimated 12,000 people attending and we welcome programme advertising, whether or not you will be taking a pitch or directly participating in the event. This is an opportunity to advertise widely to our community, at a very modest cost.

The Borough Family Fun Day will take place at Hook Road Arena on Sunday 21st September 2014. There will be multiple arenas, with many free presentations and attractions for the whole family. Any surplus proceeds will go to our Rotary Club charities.

Our advertising booking form below also gives you the option of advertising on our event web site at no extra charge, with an option to link to your own web site. Our web site in 2013 was very successful, receiving thousands of hits as the event drew nearer.

The organiser's/printer's decision as to the location of any advertising within the programme is final.

Please book as large amount of space as you can and we are grateful to you for your support of this charity event
