COMPETITION

Could you be Berkshire's Best Young Chef?

Are you a budding cook aged 12-19 and living in Berkshire?

East Berkshire College's new Hospitality & Catering Academy and Berkshire Media Group have teamed up in a search to find Berkshire's best young chefs.

With exclusive prizes on offer and a chance to cook for some of the UK's top chefs, this contest is an opportunity to get your cooking skills noticed. Those individuals who make it through to the final will take part in a live cook-off at Langley College, which will be judged by Michelin-starred chef, Tom Kerridge, and award-winning pastry chef, Will Torrent.

First prizes include:

- A meal at the two Michelin star Hand & Flowers in Marlow and a signed cookbook courtesy of Tom Kerridge.
- A masterclass with the Head Chef of Oakley Court Hotel and a three course meal in the hotel's award-winning restaurant with your parents.
- A signed copy of 'Chocolate at Home' by Will Torrent and a 5kg bar of the finest Belgian chocolate from Callebaut.
- Baking accessories (worth over £75) thanks to Sainsbury's Uxbridge Road store and The Pampered Chef.

Runners-up will each receive a signed celebrity cookbook.
