

“

My Special Day allowed me to forget about my illness for a day, not something that happens very often.

David, 40, wanted to make memories with his young family after being diagnosed with bowel cancer.

”

willow

special days for seriously ill young adults

Registered Charity Number T106746