SING CREATE ACT ENJOY!

“Encore Arts...the best kept secret in Lower Kingswood!”

Celebrating 10 years, Encore Arts continues to be the small group with a big passion for the arts.

Sarah Locke, the founder, has dedicated her young life to music, performing arts, teaching and professional singing.

A professional singer herself, she understands the strive for perfection but the philosophy behind Encore Arts runs deeper, developing and encouraging rather than looking for a polished performance.

Teaching children on a daily basis from 5-16 years in her regular classes and one to one sessions, the sessions are relaxed, with everybody enjoying their creative learning experience.

Whether creating jingles, stage management, producing plays or learning songs, needs are met for those wishing to explore, unearth and grow talent and confidence.

For more information call Sarah Locke on 07941 368860 or visit www.encorearts.co.uk

Happy New Year!

Welcome to our new Spring Season brochure!

Over the next few months we will be bringing you a fantastic line up of shows and events including Tell Me On A Sunday starring Jodie Prenger , Strictly Come Dancing Stars Natalie and Ian, and lots of comedy from Katherine Ryan, Dane Baptiste, Roy 'Chubby' Brown, Lee Nelson, Gyles Brandreth and Bobby Davro!

We are also offering FREE backstage tours for young people where you can get a rare glimpse of what goes on behind the scenes! Our expert technicians will take you on a guided tour and answer any questions you might have.

Many shows sell out really quickly and we understand how frustrating that can be when you receive the brochure only to find out the show has no tickets left. We really recommend that you sign up to our free email newsletter which will keep you up to date with all shows as they go on sale. Please go to www.epsomplayhouse.co.uk for more information.

We look forward to welcoming you to the Epsom Playhouse, and to our loyal patrons thank you for your continued support which is essential for the theatre's success.

Best wishes

THE MAGICAL CHRISTMAS EXPERIENCE RETURNS WITH A BRAND NEW ADVENTURE

EPSON
Playhouse

Santa Claus

And The Night Before Christmas

mumsnet.com

From the producers of last year's record-breaking production, Santa Claus and the Magical Christmas Journey, the enchanting Christmas experience returns with a brand new adventure. It's Christmas Eve and whilst most children are hanging up their stockings, there are a few boys and girls in Epsom who are not! They don't believe in Santa and with Christmas morning fast approaching cheeky elves Charlie and Kara must help Santa prove that he is indeed real! With magic tricks, songs and stories, can they make them believe before it's time to board Santa's sleigh and deliver the presents?

A truly unforgettable experience which includes bubbles and the magical moment when snowflakes fall over the audience, this interactive show is a must-see over the festive season. As an added Christmas treat, all of the good boys and girls in the audience will meet Santa after the show and receive a special present of their own.

KATHERINE RYAN
Thursday 21st Jan at 8.00pm

We are excited to announce the return of Katherine Ryan after her last sell out performance at the Epsom Playhouse.

The product of a strict Irish father and a glitzy Canadian 'stage mom', Katherine Ryan won neither friends nor pageant titles growing up. Try as she might to shed her questionable perspectives and super sparkly nature, she's not sure we can ever truly escape our childhood indoctrinations.

As well as being a writer-performer Katherine is also a talented actress and presenter.

Opera

LA BOHEME

Thursday 4th Feb at 7.30pm

Merry Opera, which has a nice line in slightly off-beat touring shows, performing them with charm, energy and wit (Opera Now) has toured southern England and London since 2010 and now comes to the Epsom Playhouse for the first time with Puccini's La Boheme, one of the greatest love stories in opera. An opera in four acts, composed by Giacomo Puccini. A story of four struggling artists who shared a flat, two love stories and one death. A lost key, a cold candle and a warm heart... Sparkling with merriment, and yet rich in pathos, Rodolfo and Mimì's exuberant and despairing love affair is set in Paris.

THE LITTLE MATCH GIRL
Thursday 18th Feb at 2.30pm

A magical mischievous twist on this well-known tale complete with puppetry, live music and audience interaction. This is a joyful retelling of a winter classic. It is a frosty winter evening, snow litters the ground and the little girl is alone. She is desperate to get warm so she lights the matches that she has been selling. With each match she is transported by its warmth into the scenes behind the glass. She becomes a part of the festivities, playing in the snow and eating the most delicious feast but with the light of each match they fade and are just beyond reach.

Using their unique combination of visual storytelling, folk music and object work, Moon on a Stick transform the stage into a stunning snowy spectacle. This beautiful, playful production is suitable for ages 3+ providing a perfect show for a younger audience.

STARS OF BRITISH JAZZ
Friday 26th Feb at 7.30pm

The 'Stars of British Jazz' recreate traditional jazz as made popular in Britain in the 1950s and 60s, which became known as 'British Trad'. From this period emanated bands that dominated the British jazz scene for many years, such as the bands of Kenny Ball, Chris Barber, Acker Bilk, Terry Lightfoot and Humphrey Lyttelton, all of whom became highly respected on the international jazz scene.

With this spirit in mind, we present to you 'Stars of British Jazz' - a band comprising of a mixture of past and present members of these famous bands together with younger, top class ability musicians of today, all of whom have previously worked together in various bands over the years. It is the bands intention to keep this wonderful music alive by presenting a programme performed with all of the original creativity and energy to reflect this era.

BLUES BAND
Friday 29th Apr at 8.00pm

The Blues Band was formed in 1979, by ex Manfred Mann group members, Paul Jones and Tom McGuinness, originally to play a few pub gigs on Paul Jones' nights off from his then full time career as an actor in London's West end. Seventeen or is it eighteen albums/cds later they are still going strong. 2014 saw them make their eighth appearance at The Glastonbury Festival and they are favourites on the European Festival scene, always known for giving stunning, soulful and expert performances. They still love playing together and partly keep the whole thing fresh by dispensing with a set list, so be prepared for an evening of stunning blues played with feeling and expertise by these masters of their art.

Tickets: £21.50

COUNTERFEIT STONES 25 x 5
Saturday 30th Apr at 8.00pm

The Counterfeit Stones celebrate their 25th anniversary in 2016 with yet another "Sham Rock" experience, 25 X 5. Their skillfully mixed cocktail of classic hits, retro costume and humour continues to intoxicate young and old alike - 100% proof that a good shot always hits the target. This faking masterpiece, hilariously "mockumenting" the history of the Rolling Stones from 1962, will take you back if you were there; or make you wish you were, if you weren't. Why pay a fortune to see originals as ants in a mega-dome, when for a fraction of the price you can smell the sweat of bogus brilliance? It's phony rock 'n' roll but a real bargain.

DANDELION THEATRE ARTS -
 DRAMATICALLY DIFFERENT PERFORMANCE CLASSES FOR CHILDREN
Saturdays (Term time)

We want your children to create a lot of noise, make up wild stories, and move their bodies.
(There is just not enough time for that at school.)
 We want your children to be creative in ways that test themselves, so we do not do exams.
(Most of them get enough of that at school.)
 We want your children to join us, love it, and look forward to coming to every lesson.
(If your children have this attitude to school lucky you!)
