

CAIRNGORMS NATURE FESTIVAL

Spring Flush

Saturday 14 May, 10am

Walk and beastie hunt with a local expert come and see some of the hidden signs of spring – great photography opportunities.

Location: Tomintoul Museum

Requirements: outdoor clothing and footwear

Contact: info@TGDT.org.uk or 01807 580 358

Wetland Plant and Wildflower Walk

Saturday 14 May, 11.30am

Come and explore the wealth of natural beauty beneath our feet with a local expert from the Cairngorms National Park. Including some great photography opportunities.

Location: Tomintoul Museum

Requirements: outdoor clothing and footwear

Contact: info@TGDT.org.uk or 01807 580 358

Dark Skies Event

Saturday 14 May, sunset onwards

Come along and experience some of Scotland's darkest skies allowing you to see the night sky in a new light.

Local expert on hand with specialist equipment.

Location: Braes of Glenlivet Hall

Requirements: outdoor clothing and footwear

Contact: info@TGDT.org.uk or 01807 580 358

Nature and Local Heritage Quiz

Saturday 14 May, 7.30pm for 8pm start

Nature and local heritage themed quiz. Come along and test your knowledge of the natural heritage (and some general knowledge) of the Glenlivet & Tomintoul area.

Location: Richmond Hotel

Contact: info@TGDT.org.uk or 01807 580 358

£5 per ticket, stovies included

All proceeds to Tomintoul Museum

Tomintoul Events – 'behind the scenes'

Moth Trapping

Saturday 14 May, sunset onwards

There are over 2500 species of moth in the British Isles, come and help us trap as many species as possible.

Great photography opportunities and a chance of seeing something new.

Location: TBC

Contact: info@TGDT.org.uk or 01807 580 358

Black Grouse Watch

Sunday 15 May, 4.30am

A dawn land rover tour during which you can witness the rare black grouse lek and the breeding displays of several waders.

Location: Confirmed on booking

Booking essential

Contact: enquiries@glenlivet-wildlife.co.uk

or 01807 590241

Highland Spring Watch

Sunday 15 May, 2.30pm

An off road land rover tour of the Braes of Glenlivet. A chance to see breeding curlew, lapwing, oystercatcher, dipper, sandpiper, snipe and red grouse to name but a few.

Location: Confirmed on booking

Booking essential

Contact: enquiries@glenlivet-wildlife.co.uk

or 01807 590241

Wildcat Walk

Saturday 14 & Sunday 15 May (on demand)

Come walk with us to look for signs of the elusive Scottish Wildcat with project officer Emma Rawling.

Location: Tomintoul Museum

Booking essential (10 spaces per walk)

Requirements: outdoor clothing and footwear

Contact: info@TGDT.org.uk or 01807 580 358

Ballinliesh Farm Tour

Saturday 14 & Sunday 15 May,

Sat 2pm / Sun 10:30am

Come and see our farm.

Location: Tomintoul Museum

Booking essential

Requirements: outdoor clothing and footwear

Contact: info@TGDT.org.uk or 01807 580 358

Glenlivet Hilltrek Tours

Saturday 14 & Sunday 15 May, Call for details

Including the opportunity to see some native birds and mammals and discuss current and future land use in North East Scotland. Great photography opportunities and a chance to get out with a local expert.

Location: Confirmed on booking

Booking essential

Contact: info@TGDT.org.uk or 01807 580 358

Special discounted rate for Cairngorms Nature Festival

Experience our Nature

Saturday 14 & Sunday 15 May

11am – 5pm (drop in anytime)

Nature based activities at the Tomintoul Museum including iRecord and OPAL ID sessions, Scottish Wildcat info stand, children's activities and much more.

Location: Tomintoul Museum

Contact: info@TGDT.org.uk or 01807 580 358

Park Wide Activities

The great big Photo-Post challenge – a treasure hunt with a difference!

Saturday 14 & Sunday 15 May

Take a photo at each Photo Post during the Festival – there are 13 throughout the Park. We challenge you to get to every one and be the photo-post hotshot!

get involved
Help us record our changing landscapes

Tomintoul

Aviemore

Ballater

Blair Atholl

For maps, instructions and uploading your pictures go to: cairngorms.co.uk/photo-posts/
GOOD LUCK!

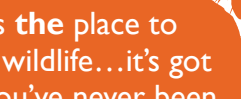

Each post is letter coded.
Can you spot the message?

Festival Photographic competition

Saturday 14 & Sunday 15 May

Share your Cairngorms Nature Festival photos with us on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram #CNF16

“The Cairngorms is the place to be if you love your wildlife...it's got everything...so if you've never been, come and have a look for yourself!”

Nick Baker
Naturalist & television presenter

For further information about the Cairngorms Nature Festival call: 01479 873535

#CNF16