Thursday 18 May: Morgan Car Factory Tour £47 includes tour

Today's trip is to the home of Morgan Cars for over 100 years. Our guided tour sees craftsman hand make these iconic sports cars. We also see the Car Museum as well as cars of the past, present and future. After, we visit Malvern before a scenic drive home across the Cotswolds. This trip travels with the 'Quilt UK' trip (ring for details). Depart from 9am, return from 6pm. There will be 'comfort stops' en route.

Monday 22 May: Let's go shopping.... Farnham or Forest Lodge £10

Travel into Farnham for some shopping, or maybe you prefer the well-known Forest Lodge Garden Centre, or the newly opened Country Markets Garden Centre and shops, now completely remodelled following the fire? Departures from 1pm. Arrive home from 5pm.

Friday 26 May: Let's go shopping.... Marks and Spencer, Sandhurst £10

A chance to visit this well-known store and have lunch at the same time. Why not visit the Tesco superstore next door. Departures start from 1pm. Arrive home from 5pm.

Wednesday 7 June: Thames boat trip from Windsor £29 (town only £19)

We spend an hour or so in the town before joining the boat for a 2-hour trip with commentary. We see lovely countryside and beautiful riverside homes, travelling up river for nearly 5 miles. Bar and toilet facilities are available on board. Depart 10:30am, arriving home around 5pm.

Wednesday 21 June: Mottisfont House and Rose Garden £33 includes entry

Founded in 1201 as a Augustinian priory, Mottisfont has been altered and extended by its many owners. It now reflects the life of the last owner, Maud Russell who made Mottisfont the centre of a fashionable artistic and political circle and gifted it to the National Trust in 1957. The lovely walled gardens is home to the highly-regarded collection of old fashioned roses that are in full flower in June. Cafés on site. Depart from 10:30am, arriving home from 5pm.

Thursday 29 June: Weymouth £27

The archetypal English sea side town with its Georgian esplanade and pretty harbour. There are lots of shops and cafes and of course Weymouth beach with its beautiful golden sands - ranked 9th best beach in Europe so bring your towel! We spend the day in this lovely town where you are free to explore. Depart from 8:30am, arriving home from 6pm.

Wednesday 5 July: Bennetts Water Gardens, Dorset &

Abbotsbury Swannery or Sub Tropical Gardens £41 includes entry

Bennetts Water Gardens houses the National Collection of Water Lilies with over 140 different hardy cultivars in the collection. The 8 acres of beautiful garden comprises several interlinked ponds. There is a cafe. After lunch in Abbotsbury (not included) you choose to visit either The Swannery or the Sub Tropical Garden. The Swannery, established 1040s, is the only place in the world where you walk through a colony of nesting mute swans. The Sub Tropical Garden is world famous for it's Camellia groves and magnolia and locally for the Victorian Garden. There is a café at both. Departures from 8:30am, arriving home from 6:30pm

Monday 10 July: Southsea evening fish and chips £16

We drive to Southsea where you have the chance to buy fish and chips and eat them on the promenade, or if you prefer, there are several cafes. There is always plenty to see – boats going in & out of harbour, people on the seafront, hovercraft and ferries coming and going. Depart from 3:30pm, arrive home from 7:30pm.

Monday 17 July: Chichester with Goodwood House option

£31 including house and tour (£21 for Chichester only)

Choose between Chichester only, or Chichester combined with a Goodwood House tour. We travel to Chichester first - a lovely city with its cathedral, Roman walls and lovely High Street. Those going to Goodwood leave early afternoon. Goodwood House is home to The Earl and Countess of March and family home of the Dukes of Richmond for over 300 years. It combines the glamour of a great English Country House with the warmth of a family home. There is a guided tour of the House: the State Apartments and the Old House, the Egyptian Dining Room, the glamorous Yellow Drawing Room. We then return via Chichester picking up the shoppers. Departures from 10:30, arriving home from around 6pm.

Tuesday 20 July: Fiddler on the Roof

Chichester Festival Theatre 2:30pm £59 includes ticket for best seats

If I were a rich man... 1905. A small village in Imperial Russia. Tevye, a poor dairyman, and his wife, Golde, are blessed with five witty and beautiful daughters. The matchmaker Yente, who believes any husband is better than no husband, is busy making sensible marriage plans for them all. But Tevye's bold daughters have their own ideas about who to marry. And as change and new ideas roll in from the big cities, dissolving the old ways of life, the sisters are not alone in their lust for something new. This celebrated and much loved musical is packed with show-stopping songs including the hits If I Were A Rich Man, Tradition and Matchmaker. Omid Djalili makes his Chichester debut playing Tevye. Depart from 11am giving time for lunch in Chichester. Arrive home from 6pm.

Thursday 27 July: Bournemouth or Poole - you choose!

(with scenic Poole Harbour boat trip option) £27/£39

The town of Bournemouth is famous for its mix of shopping and sandy beaches as well as its parks and gardens. Alternatively, take a 1.5 hour cruise through Poole Harbour seeing various islands, the busy Poole harbour entrance and admire the scenery. We drop off close to the boat departure point and you have time to explore Poole as well. Depart from 9am, returning from 6:30pm.

Tuesday 1 August: Mystery Tour to the Coast £18

We take the scenic route of course, but where to?! You can be sure we stop for refreshments en-route. Depart from 12:30pm, returning home from around 5pm.

All trips can be booked separately by your own group
