Katie Piper: What's in my Head

Thursday 10th May at 7.30pm

Tickets £21.50 Premium Tickets £50

In a time of glossy magazines, Photoshop, Instagram filters and app dating remaining in touch with reality has never been harder.

Katie embarks on her debut theatre tour to share what she has learnt and what helped her remain positive even through the toughest of times. She will discuss her own battles with anxiety and explains how she has overcome its crippling clutches. Katie is opening her own diaries, photo albums and personal memories in this most intimate and revealing talk about her life.

Insecurities exist in us all and adversity in life is unavoidable, but how can it be managed? How can we find the light in the darkest of times? Katie believes no matter how big or small your challenges might seem, there is always a confident way forward and she will show you how.

This is her story, this is her life, this is her wisdom. This is 'What's in My Head'.

TREXTASY

Friday 11th May at 8.00pm
Tickets £21.50

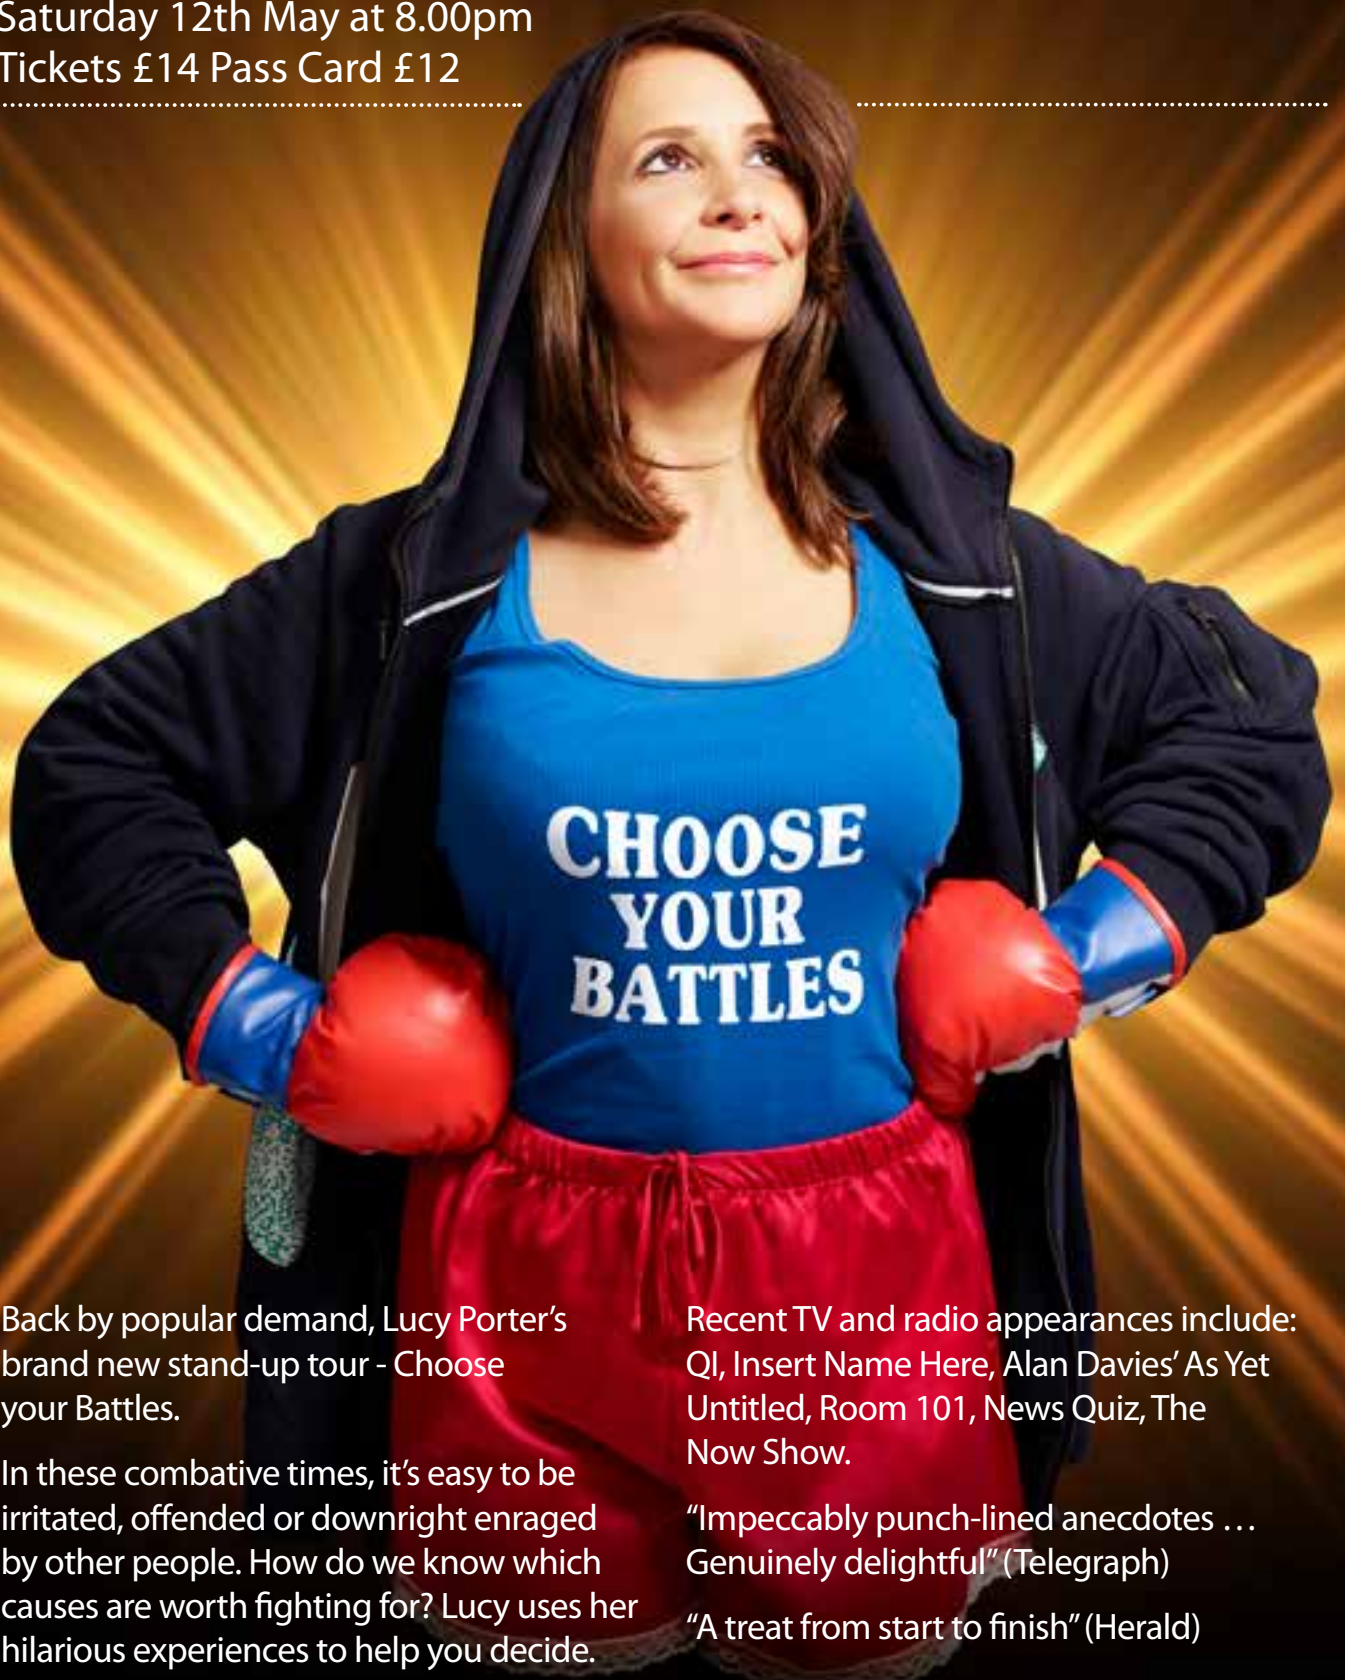

Marc Bolan, with his band T.Rex, was one of the most flamboyant and charismatic stars of the original glam rock era. It's hard to believe that 40 years have now passed since Marc's tragic fatal car accident and fans have mourned the loss of a truly individual, inspirational talent ever since.

Bolan's special ingredient of Rock-a-Boogie songs including '20th Century Boy', 'Get in On' and 'I Love to Boogie' have insured that Marc Bolan and T.Rex have become one of the most memorable and enduring bands of the seventies.

Derby Day – Film (Epsom Derby festival week) MYERS Studio

Friday 25th May at 1pm

Tickets £5*

*Ticket price includes £2 donation to Mayors Charity and a choice of tea or coffee and a slice of cake post film.

Derby Day is a 1952 British drama film directed by Herbert Wilcox and starring Anna Neagle, Michael Wilding, Googie Withers, John McCallum and Alfie Bass.

An ensemble piece, it portrays several characters on their way to the Derby Day races at Epsom Downs Racecourse.

It cleverly blends dramatic, romantic and comic elements, including the woman and lover who have murdered her husband, and the working class couple who are excited about their chance to go to the races, but end up listening to it on the radio in the car-park because they've got such a bad view.

After the film join us in The Bar for tea/coffee and a slice of cake.

Call Box office to book on 01372 742555 or online at www.epsomplayhouse.co.uk

EduStage Musical Theatre Summer Schools for Young People:

Week 1: July 30 to August 3 (ages 8 to 12) Performance August 3 at 3pm

Week 2: August 6 to 10 (ages 13 to 17) Performance August 10 at 3pm

London based EduStage offers a creative week of rehearsals and performance for young people. Working with professional directors participants will do drama games and sing songs from West End shows. They will also be given the opportunity to act, sing and dance in an original musical to be performed on the main stage with sound, costumes and lights on the final afternoon of the summer school. No experience necessary!

The cost of the Theatre School is £150 for the whole week including, subject to availability, tickets to the performance for all the family and friends.

Sibling rate £135

For further details contact the box office or EduStage on 020 8673 1864 (between 10am and 4pm) or edustage@talktalk.net

Please book early as this summer school is likely to be very popular and places are strictly limited.
