

SureSafe

Do you have a Walsall Council community alarm? SureSafe alarms service transfer offer.

Background

Walsall Council has confirmed that their community alarm service will cease to operate on Monday 11th February. At that time, all Walsall Council Community Alarm user's alarms will no longer be linked to a 24/7 response centre. When an alarm is activated after Monday 11th February, it will go unanswered.

Walsall Council has confirmed that users are responsible for finding an alternative community alarm provider in the private market. They have also confirmed that the Walsall Council provided alarm equipment can be transferred to your new alarm provider, if possible.
