AFTER A YEAR OF LOCKDOWN EPSOM PLAYHOUSE IS BACK WITH...

the truly magical family pantomime

The title 'Beauty and the Beast' is written in a large, ornate, golden cursive font. Above the word 'Beauty' is a small golden silhouette of a woman's head with a heart. To the right of the word 'Beauty' is a red rose on a green stem. The word 'and the' is written in a smaller, simpler font between 'Beauty' and 'BEAST'. The word 'BEAST' is in a large, bold, golden serif font. The background is a dark purple and blue night sky with many yellow stars and a golden chandelier hanging from the top.

At last... Pantomime is back in Epsom. With the world in turmoil, it's re-assuring to know that some traditions are still going strong. The Playhouse & Spillers Pantomimes are delighted to, finally, be back this year, bigger and better than ever, with a fabulous, traditional pantomime to suit the whole family.

Time to come back to 'live theatre' and escape with us as we take you on a magical pantomime journey to 'Pantoland'. Beauty & the Beast the classic love story with spectacular scenery and fabulous costumes; plenty of slapstick, audience participation and some amazing singing and dancing this really is a 'fun packed' production not to miss.

The perfect Christmas treat for young and old....

It's time to come back to the theatre...

Epsom Light Opera Company present - Sing Out to Help Out

Friday 22 to Sat 23 October at 7.30pm & Sat Mat at 2.30pm
Tickets £15

From the award winning company that brought you 'Jesus Christ Super Star', 'West Side Story' and 'Singin' In The Rain,' Epsom Light Opera Company presents their charity fundraiser, "Sing Out To Help Out!"

Having started rehearsals online during the National Lockdown, ELOC will be back on stage in October to raise money for the Teenage Cancer Trust at The Royal Marsden and the Central Play Team at St George's Hospital.

Please come along to support ELOC and your local theatre while enjoying numbers from Dear Evan Hansen, Waitress, Once, Les Miserables, Calamity Jane and many more.

Don't miss our long awaited return to the stage with this musical extravaganza!

The Shires

Wednesday 27 October at 8.00pm
Tickets Band A £33.50 Band B £29.50

The Shires are on fire. Following the British duo's most successful tour yet – one that took them from the Royal Albert Hall to the Royal Wedding overnight (literally) –

Crissie Rhodes and Ben Earle signed a new international record deal and returned from Nashville with their strongest set of songs yet.

The first of those, the embracing, uplifting New Year, was released as a taster track as one decade closed and another began.

Now the UK's best-selling country act are doubling down on their solid-gold songwriting touch with a handful of well received musical offerings.

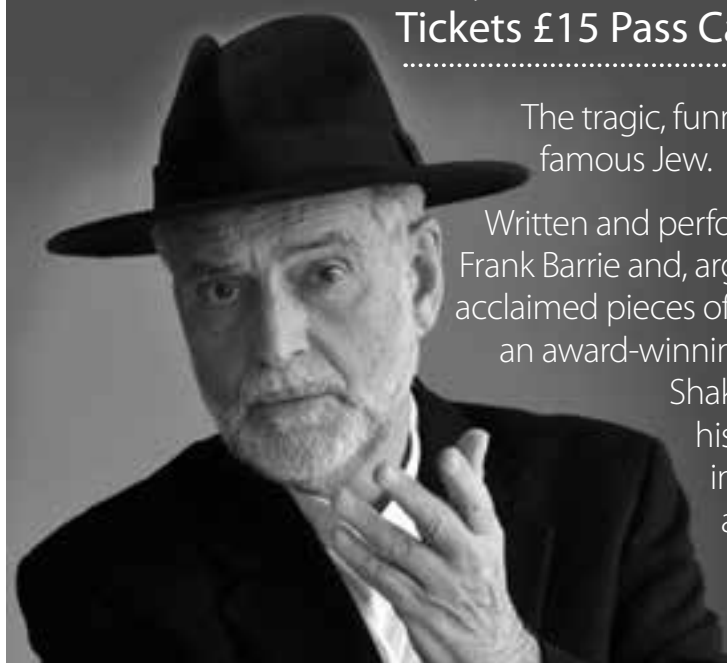

Shylock - Myers Studio

Friday 29 October at 7.30pm
Tickets £15 Pass Card/Under 16yrs £12

The tragic, funny and often unbelievable life of fiction's most famous Jew.

Written and performed by Gareth Armstrong, directed by Frank Barrie and, arguably, one of the most significant and acclaimed pieces of solo theatre of the last 25 years, Shylock is an award-winning play which explores the world of Shylock, Shakespeare's most controversial character, and his people. The play examines religious and racial intolerance, the history of plays in performance and, above all, celebrates the richness of Shakespeare's language.

Unallocated Seating.

Blake

Saturday 30 October at 7.30pm

Tickets £24.50

Since joining together in 2007, Brit Award Winning vocalists Blake have recorded and performed many of the world's best loved songs.

Celebrating their time together, they have chosen their all-time favourites, bringing you an extraordinary show that highlights their harmonies better than ever before.

Milton Jones

Monday 1 November at 7.30pm

Tickets £27.50

One man. One Mission. Is it possible?
No, not really.

Him with the shirts from Mock the Week, Live at the Apollo and Radio 4.

Milton reveals the truth about being an international spy, before being given a disappointing new identity which forced him to appear on Mock the Week, Live at the Apollo.

But this is also a love story with the twist, or even a really bad sprain.

Just gloriously daft nonsense or is there a deeper meaning? Every man has his price. Sainsbury's, where good food costs less.

Legends of American Country

Tuesday 2 November at 8.00pm

Tickets £22.50

Seen by over 300,00 fans live and watched by millions on social media, Europe's No.1 multi award winning 'Legends of American Country' returns for another fantastic night of toe tapping Country classics .

The 2021 tour will showcase acclaimed tributes to Dolly Parton, Johnny Cash , Don William, Patsy Cline and Kenny Rogers with new tributes to icons Hank Williams , Charley Pride, Glen Campbell, Tammy Wynette and Jim Reeves. Countless well known hit songs in this must see musical extravaganza.

Featuring 4 fantastic singers, accompanied by a superb live band of musicians, with that authentic sound, stage set and state of the art production. This show will transport you all the way to Nashville for one night.

Brian Blessed

Wednesday 3 November at 7.30pm

Tickets £25

Larger than life actor, writer and presenter Brian Blessed is known for his hearty, king-sized portrayals on film and television.

A giant of a man accompanied by an eloquent wit and booming, operatic voice, he is also an avid explorer and climber and 'An Evening with Brian Blessed' will combine anecdotes from his illustrious acting career with tales of his adventuring. With a career spanning more than 50 years, there is no shortage of material.

The show is an experience that nobody should miss! His eloquence and humour will have the audience captured from the moment he walks on stage until the moment he leaves.

His show may not be suitable for people of a nervous disposition or those who aren't expecting the odd expletive!

The Epsom Playhouse - A fantastic little theatre in the heart of Epsom with an impressive hall of fame - was opened officially on 24th Jan 1984 by councilor Ronald Gee.

The Playhouse started out as a community centre of sorts but evolved with time to host professional shows as well as community hires. The first show was a grand concert celebrating the opening in Jan 1984 – although the theatre actually opened in 1983.

The Auditorium seats 450 as the seating capacity has been increased over the years and plays host to major leading theatrical companies and performers show casing Opera, Dance, Drama, Comedy, Light Entertainment, Variety, Popular Children's Shows and much more. We have a fantastic room called The Myers Studio within the Playhouse which is a warm and inviting space that seats up to 80 and is used as a regular venue for professional productions, our ever popular Studio Jazz evenings, children's shows and community events. Both the Auditorium and the Myers Studio are available for both corporate hire and private hire.

We have continued to grow and develop as a theatre and pride ourselves on our community ethos, we believe there is something here for everyone whether you're a theatre novice or seasoned regular.

Come and perform on the Epsom Playhouse Stage!
