WELCOME

We are delighted to present our brand new Autumn Season of events scheduled between September and December.

At the centre of the programme is our first ever 'Spooky Season', a curated selection of shows with a hint of the macabre to celebrate the month of Halloween. Be sure to look out for the logo to track down the terror! At the core of these productions is the eighth annual Horrorthon film festival, and whilst this is strictly for the over 18s, Dame Dolly will be entertaining our younger visitors, on her first visit to Sudbury, with her own Spooktacular at the end of the month.

As the nights draw in, comedy fans are equally well catered for with Tony Slattery's new show Resuscitated promising improv aplenty, whilst hilarious surgical stand up from Ed Patrick is on the cards in Catch Your Breath, The Secret Life of An Anaesthetist.

Musical highlights include return visits from Martin Turner and Robbie Gladwell as well as Quay debuts for The Grace Smith Trio and Archie Churchill-Moss and in October internationally acclaimed concert pianist James Lisney presents An Evening of Chopin.

Our visiting drama programme continues to blossom with both Eastern Angles tale of a marooned fisherman, The Deep, and Nicholas Collett's tribute to those who served in the Atlantic Convoys of World War 2, Mettle, boasting a nautical theme. Elsewhere the latest from Common Ground Theatre, Dyad, Clair / Obscur and Gerard Logan promise plenty to entertain.

Finally two shows definitely not to miss are Lamphouse Theatre's musical comedy Frankenstein (On a Budget) and Hambleton Productions Hancock's Half Hour - The Lost TV Episodes. The first time these scripts have been performed since their original screening.

Thank you as ever for your continued support. We look forward to seeing you soon.

Tom Lagden, Interim Executive Director
